

1. K-Love is an important community broadcast. I believe it promotes good family values so needed today.
2. If K-Love were replaced by LPFM it would allow other programming that may not be as family friendly.
3. K-Love is a station the public can listen to from their homes, cars or place of work in a time of need. The station serves the public in the interest of family unity.